

REFLECTOR

1950-51

Vernon Wilson

FOREWORD

We, the seniors of the 1951 class, wish to cherish our final year at Lee's Summit High School through the activities, associations, and achievements recalled in the

1951 Reflector

and we sincerely hope that this year, which has been the highlight of our school career, will be remembered by faculty and students alike as one of the happiest L. S. H. S. has ever known.

DEDICATION

As a small token of our sincere appreciation of the splendid service he has rendered this school in the patient guidance of its students, we dedicate this 1951 edition of the Reflector to our friend and principal, Mr. T. F. John.

CLASS POEM

A sentimental feeling reigns
 Each time we hear those haunting strains
 Of loyalty to L. S. High,
 Our school song will never die!

Our enthusiasm grew
 And love for L. S. H. S. too,
 Throughout the four years come and gone;
 Now we seniors must go on.

For now the years are memories,
 And each will go where each one sees
 A chance for him to do his part;
 A troubled world awaits our start.

Our gratitude to everyone
 Connected with the work and fun
 Is in our hearts, and so we say,
 "Thank you all for every day!"

Students enrolled in the Diversified Occupations (D. O.) Program gain practical work experience in an occupation of their choice. Technical knowledge related to their job is studied on an individual basis in the related class room. Other regular high school subjects are taken by the student. Local business men provide work stations and pay beginners wages to the "student-learner." Total income for this group was over $5,000 for the school year 1950-51. Employers participating in this program benefit by gaining full-time employees when the student graduates. Desirable personal-social traits are developed by the student-learner.

ARE YOU SORRY OR GLAD TO LEAVE L. S. H. S.?

Thelma Bears—"Glad; I like new surroundings."
Ardis Quintana—"I'm kinda sorry, but I'm kinda glad."

Mary Lou White—"Glad; I'm looking forward to other things."

Bob Moore—"Glad; I'm looking forward to college."

Hurley Mahan—"Sorry; I won't see all the handsome faces of L.S.H.S."

Georgia DeBrot—"It will be alright until the new wears off."

Betty Greer—"Glad; now I can start keeping house."

Ellen Baumgarden—"I have just gotten here, so I haven't had time to find out."

Joe Turney—"Sorry; have to go to the army and I'll miss Miss McCaffery."

Phil Hopkins—"I'm sorry to leave, all but the work."

Roy Hubbard—"I'm sorry because I won't be around everybody at school."

Jim Slagle—"I'm glad because it will give Miss Thomas and the rest of the teachers a rest."

Jr. Garnett—"I'm sorry; Miss Whitaker might be lonely."

Ruth Taylor—"Sorry in a way, but it doesn't weigh enough."

Nancy Whitaker—"Sorry to leave the kids but glad to leave school, because I have other ideas."

Elizabeth Owen—"I'm glad to leave school but sorry to leave the kids."

Jesse Graham—"Glad (very much); I've been in school too long."

Harry Webber—"Glad, if I ever get caught up in bookkeeping."

Melvorn Bragaw—"Sorry, because I like school."

Don Carlat—"Sorry, because it means the end of four of the best years of my life."

Donald Spooner—"Are you kidding!"

Laura Lee—"Glad now, but I'll be sorry later, I'm afraid."

Lorraine Bozarth—"Sorry to leave the kids, but anxious for a change."

Richard Draheim—"I'm glad because I won't have to worry about excuses or teachers any more."

Dee Clark—"Glad, so I won't have to walk so far to school every day."

Billy Pemberton—"Sorry, because I can't play football anymore."

Clyde Westerfield—"Sorry, because I won't get to tease the teachers anymore."

Lillian Quinn—"Glad to be able to get out on my own."

Barbara Crooker—"I won't mind because Charley will be leaving, too."

Charley Hartley—"Being out of school will be quite a change, but as long as Barbara's leaving with me, it won't be bad at all."

Jerry Roller—"Sorry, because I hate to leave all my friends."

Bill Diehl—"Glad; Uncle Sam has a job for me."

Alice Carroll—"I am glad to graduate because it's about time."

Donna Sisk—"Yes because I won't be so tied down and can reach higher goals in modeling."

John Davis—"Glad; I am ready to work for Uncle Sam."

Barbara Walberg—"I'm sorry because I'll be out in this big world all alone."

Bang Horne—"I'm sorry because I hate to leave all the sports."

Pat Rowland—"I'm sorry because I will have to leave my studies. (Ha!)"

Barbara Modlin—"I'm glad because I want to start my career."

Mary Dyke—"Well half and half."

Francie Mullinix—"I'm sorry because I can't pester the teachers any more especially Miss Whitaker in third hour study hall."

Sylvia Blackwell—"I'm sorry because I'll miss all the fun we have had the last four years (short-hand)."

Kenneth Moore—"I'm glad; no more cramming for six-weeks tests."

Parker Moser—"Sorry because I'll have to work or go into the army; I'll miss giving oral book reports and I'll miss all the good looking girls."

Dorothy Chiddix—"I'm glad to graduate; after all I've waited long enough!"

Jack Brown—"I hate to leave school because I'll have to go to work."

Delmar Spilker—"Sorry to leave because of all the good times I've had in L. S. H. S."

Jack Martin—"I am sorry because of this one year I have had more fun and would love to come back."

Jack Duncan—"Who says I'm leaving?"

Gene Bryan—"Sorry because I will have to work on the farm. All work, no play."

Rex Hale—"Glad, so that Mr. Wilson can't make me shovel of the sidewalks."

Russell Adams—"Oh, I'll miss L. S. and all the girls."

Gene Bears—"Sorry; now I'll really have to go to work."

Barbara Belt—"Sorry to leave the ole gang."

Bob Bergen—"By all means I'm sorry; I'll have to go to work."

Gerry Browning—"I'm glad but I'll miss the kids and the teachers."

Dick Davis—"Sorry in a way and glad in a way."

Donna Dev—"Glad because no more Friday rushes on the Hi-Life."

Jean Dunham—"Glad because when I get out of this school I can go to college."

Terry Garrity—"Sorry; I'll miss the Hi-Life, kids, and the teachers."

Anna Griffith—"Both, sorry and glad."

Rolland Inman—"It doesn't make much difference to me."

Jim Jones—"Both. Glad if I go to college, sorry if I go to Korea."

Darl Keehler—"Glad; I'll be out of school."

Deon Lawrance—"Glad because the Reflector will be out, but sorry to leave L. S. H. S."

Charles Lobdell—"Glad, because now I can start my own business."

Albert McNutt—"Sorry—I don't know why."

Nancy McPheeters—"I'm just plain glad."

Pat Moore—"I'm tickled pink; now I can get a job."

Shirley Parry—"Sorry; I'll miss the teachers, kids, and the old High School Days."

Bill Ramsey—"I just got here, I wouldn't know."

Verle Rice—"Glad, I guess, so I can go to college."

Bruce Stonum—"Sorry; it was fun while it lasted."

Orville Emanuel—"Sorry; I'll have to leave my girl-friends."

TAUGHT IN THE ACT

"HOPPY"

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1951

Time: 1961. Place: Mars. Setting: A fashionable resort.

Gerry Browning just arriving at Villa Marsian, glides her flying saucer on to the refueling ramps of the resort garage. Gerry, hearing a crackling sound, looked over to the next ramp and whom did she see but Russell Adams, an old '51 classmate from earth, crunching on a Mars bar while his super-deluxe saucer was being serviced.

Gerry: Russell Adams!

Russell: Why Gerry Browning! It's a small universe, isn't it? I haven't seen you since graduation night at old L. S. H. S.

Gerry: Say, do you remember Charley Hartley and Barbara Crooker?

Russell: Yes. Aren't they Mr. and Mrs. now?

Gerry: Yes, and have six little Hartleys, but nevertheless they gave a farewell party for me before I left earth and several of our old classmates were there. Patsy Rowland, now an old maid school teacher, was there and told me about our old pal, Barbara Walberg, who is now deep in the undertaking business since the death of her seventh husband, a former Raytown student. Say, have you heard anything about my old neighbor, Orvil Emanuel?

Russell: Oh, yes, haven't you heard? He and Robert Emmet Bergen are co-owners of Kroger's Food Stores, Inc., and Bill Pemberton is working as their sales manager. Say, have you heard about the three stooges?

Gerry: The "three stooges?"

Russell: Yes; you remember Jim Slagle, Junior Garnett, and Clyde Westerfield. Well they're raking in millions making movie shorts for the Moore, Moser, McNutt, Maas and Jones Studios, owned by Kenneth Moore, Parker oMser, Albert McNutt, Ronnie Maas and James Coleman Jones.

Gerry: Another one of my old neighbors, Joe Turney, is now marriage counselor for Woman's Home Companion Magazine, edited by Bruce Stonum.

Russell: Well, what do you know about that. I heard that Nancy Whitaker is head nurse at the county home.

Gerry: Yes, she had a special motive in going there. Oh, yes! Barbara Belt and Sylvia Blackwell are Admirals in the Navy Nurse Corps. I hear that Barbara also had a motive in getting into the Navy.

Russell: I recently received a letter from Ensign Robert Reginald Moore, who said the Navy was being entertained by the Davis, Duncan, Diehl and Draheim Circus owned by Dick Davis, Jack Duncan, Bill Diehl, and Richard Draheim. Also several of our old classmates were actors in the show. Gene Bears was the fat man, weighing seven hundred sixty pounds (Kyron doesn't work for him).

Gerry: Speaking of Kyron, had you heard that Harry Weber is owner of the Kyron Company?. Barbara Modlin is employed there as his personal secretary.

Russell: Well, holy universe! Getting back to the circus, did you know Mademoiselle FeFlang, who in reality is Georgia DeBrot, is now a distinguished trapeze artist?

Gerry: Oh, yes, and I hear she is quite accomplished. By the way, I guess you knew Donald Carlat is now well known in Rome as a Latin teacher.

Russell: Are you going to the inter-planetary basketball game tonight? Earth vs. Mars. Bang Horne is star for Earth and Terry Garrity, another of our old gang, is sports reporter and will broadcast over EMMV.

Gerry: No, I won't be able to go to that game. I have to attend the fashion show. You remember Donna Sisk, pin-up girl of '51? Well, she and Nancy McPheeters are modeling tonight.

Russell: Say, have you heard about "Speedy" Verle Rice?

Gerry: No.

Russell: Well, he's become a well known midget jet racer. I believe I heard that last week he broke a universal speed record.

Gerry: Sounds like he hasn't changed a bit since our high school days. Speaking of people who haven't changed, Lorraine Bozarth is married to Pete Green and they're owners of a large pig ranch. Jack Martin is their foreman.

Russell: Is that right? Well, I heard that Delmar Spilker is thriving on a chicken farm and you couldn't guess who he is married to.

Gerry: No, who?

Russell: Deon Lawrance!

Gerry: Well, that's the last person I would have guessed. Say, do you remember the great affection between Jean Dunham and John Davis? Well, it's even greater since they're in-laws.

Russell: I guess you knew that three of our old classmates, Jesse Graham, Malvern Bragaw, and Rex Hale, are co-owners of the Villa Marsian.

Gerry: Yes, I hope to see them while I'm here. Also Dorothy Chiddix, who is now Mrs. Phil Hopkins, is the head cook here and Phil is head waiter.

Russell: Say, we should be proud of Hurley Mahan since he's been elected President of the Universe.

Gerry: Yes, and the first lady, the former Thelma Bears, certainly makes a stunning appearance.

Russell: She certainly does. I hear that Hurley is going to appoint Donald Spooner, the famous hunter of '51, as wild life conservationist.

Gerry: Say, listen to this. Francie Mullinix has become a minister, and Charles Lobdell is an elder in his church. Can't you just see that pair?

Russell: See it? I can't even imagine it! Speaking of things I can't imagine, Gene Bryan is President of Greenwood University and Ellen Baumgarden is Professor of zoology there. Laura Lee is also employed there. She is head of the chemistry department.

Gerry: How nice, but I guess you know they aren't the only distinguished people in our class. I hear that Elizabeth Owens is doing very well for herself, too. She is the producer of the famous western show known as the "Cow Town Jamboree."

Russell: Mary Dyke is doing alright for herself, too. You remember how enthusiastic she used to get at our old L. S. H. S. games! Well, she is now a coach. I believe the first in the big league, and just as enthusiastic as ever.

Gerry: Mary always has loved sports. The latest thing yet is Dee Clark is owner of "Clark Careful Cab Co.," and his business manager is Jack Brown. Jack was driving Alice Carroll to her home a few days ago, when they collided with Jerry Roller, who is employed in Roland Inman's "Super Speed Scooter Factory." However, we are proud of the fact that no one was hurt, with the exception of bumps and bruises.

Russell: Well, what surprised me more than anything was when I was recently informed that Betty Greer and Donna Dey had abandoned their former plans of secretarial work and are now engaged in the U.U.O.O.C., the United Universal Organization of Charity. They have proved to be very enthusiastic about this type of work.

Gerry: Remember, down on earth that place called St. Joseph? Shirley Parry is now owner of a large nursery (trees, that it) which she recently inherited from her uncle. Speaking of St. Joe, Ardis Quintana is there. She is ticket taker at the Skylark Theater.

Russell: Talking about show business, that reminds me, Anna Griffith, who is universally known as "Go Get'em Griffith," is a famous lady wrestler.

Gerry: You think that tops them all. Get a load of this. Ruth Taylor, known as "Salty," has sure lived up to her name. She is owner of the "Sifted Salt Mines," on Sirius.

Russell: Boy, that is a good deal. Who would have ever guessed it? I guess you knew about the partnership of Bill Ramsey and Pat Moore. They are in the pearl business. He dives for them and she strings them. Right prosperous and very interesting business.

Gerry: Yes, I plan to visit them some time soon. I was wondering the other day what in the universe ever happened to Darl Keehler? Have you heard?

Russell: Oh, didn't you know? He is the owner or "Keehler Klean Kennels," and Roy Hubbard is employed there. He is expected to help Keehler keep 'em clean.

Gerry: No, I hadn't heard that. I happened into Lillian Quinn last month and she was telling me about her new job as a telephone operator. She also said Mary Lou White is owner of a well known hotel in New York City.

Russell: Gee, look what time it is. Nearly six o'clock. Say, why don't we have dinner and talk more about old times?

Gerry: Why that's a splendid idea.

Russell: I'll meet you in the dining room at seven. See ya soon.
